WESTERVILLE DIVISION OF POLICE ARRESTS JEFFREY FENNEMAN FOR GAS STATION ROBBERIES

The Westerville Division of Police arrested Jeffrey Fenneman, 29, on Friday, January 28 for the robbery of two gas stations/convenience stores in Westerville, and one in Blendon Township. All three robberies occurred in early January.

Police received several anonymous tips that led to the arrest of Fenneman. He was arrested in Johnstown and transported to Westerville, where he was charged with Robbery, a third-degree felony.

The robberies occurred at the following times and locations:

- January 1, 2011, 8 a.m. at the Certified Station in Blendon Twp. on Westerville Rd.
- January 2, 2011, around 12:35 p.m. at the Certified Station at 131 S. Sunbury Rd.
- January 4, 2011, 9:05 p.m. at the Duke & Duchess Station at 900 S. Sunbury Rd.

Fenneman is currently in Franklin County Jail awaiting arraignment.

Photos captured from surveillance footage during the robberies are available on the City of Westerville website at this link.
