RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

At a regular meeting of Company C, 14th Reg't O.N.G., held July 25, 1882, the following resolutions were adopted, as expressive of the Company's deep sorrow and sincere regret at the loss of their esteemed comrade, SERGEANT W. F. WELLEN, who was called from his budding manhood to his eternal rest, on the 21st of July, 1882:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Great Commander to transfer from our ranks to those eternal our respected comrade, SEARGEANT W. F. WELLEN; and being deeply sensitive of the severe loss, which, in the death of Comrade WELLEN, will be felt not only by his comrades in arms but by the whole community, we are desirous of extending to the bereved widow and sorrowing friends our most heartfelt sympathies, there fore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of SERGEANT WELLEN the Company has lost a faithful and zealous soldier, the grieving widow a kind and loving husband, and society at large an honest, pure-minded man, and a Christian gentleman. And be it farther

Resolved, That our armory be draped in the usual manner for thirty days; that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the mourning widow, and that a copy be furnished to the Westerville Review for publication.
