Subject:	Westerville Police Make Arrest in Burglary
Releasing Officer:	Detective Chris Davis
Date:	April 10, 2014
Press Release Log:	14-011	Report #:	14-9503

(Westerville, Ohio) – The Westerville Division of Police arrested Quovada Stephen Bass this morning for burglary in the 900 block of E. College Ave.

The homeowner was inside the home when the suspect forced entry through the back door. The homeowner then fled and called police. Bass also fled the scene. An alert neighbor called police to report a suspicious man running through her yard and entering a home on Nadine Place, where Bass was identified and arrested without incident.

A subsequent search warrant was conducted at Bass’s home and evidence was seized. Bass was transported to the Franklin County Jail after questioning.

A helicopter provided by the Columbus Division of Police assisted in the search. For more information, please contact Detective Chris Davis, Westerville Division of Police at (614) 901-6478.
