The City of Westerville is committed to providing equal access to all persons with disabilities. To ensure effective communication in connection with city services, the City of Westerville provides qualified sign language and oral interpreters, qualified readers, and other auxiliary aids and services free of charge for city residents and other individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, and/or blind, or have low vision. To request auxiliary aids or service, please speak to the Director of Administrative Services, (614) 901-6400, or email ada coordinator@westerville.org.
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities. Pursuant to Title II of the ADA, persons who are deaf or hard of hearing have the right to request auxiliary aids and services to ensure effective communication. For more information about the ADA, call the U.S. Department of Justice's toll-free ADA Information Line at 800-514-0301 (voice) or 800-514-0383 (TTY) or visit the ADA Home Page at www.ada.gov.
