MISSION STATEMENT
The Westerville Division of Police mission is to maintain a safe environment for our citizens to live, work and play and to do so by providing proactive and reactive services in keeping with a community policing philosophy. These services are to be performed in an efficient and effective manner with pride, integrity and professionalism while assuring that each person’s constitutional rights are protected.

Employee involvement in the Division is a vital part of continuous improvement. Each employee, while performing his/her part of the mission, is to strive to be there for each citizen when there is a need, no matter how big or small.
