

JESSIE M. ZUCK

Mausoleum, Crypt 55, Tier 5

GPS Coordinates: 82° 56' 10.056" W 40° 7' 13.581" N

MRS. W. J. ZUCK BURIED IN MAUSOLEUM HERE

Several Westerville friends attended the short burial services Tuesday, July 29, at the Otterbein Mausoleum for Mrs. Jessie Zent Zuck, age 84, widow of the late Dr. W. J. Zuck, former professor of English literature at Otterbein college. Mrs. Zuck died at the home of her son, Emerson Zuck, in Philadelphia. She is survived by another son, Alfred Zuck, of Columbus and daughter, Miss Alice Zuck, teacher of Spanish in Cleveland.

Dr. Zuck and family built the home at 98 W. Home street, now known as the Thomas cottage for college women. Mrs. Zuck was a charter member of the New Century club and was active in other affairs when she lived in Westerville, and made many friends. She was a graduate of Otterbein College in the class of 1878.

Public Opinion - August, 1941

Born: August, 1857
IN

Died: July, 1941
Philadelphia Co, PA

Father: Samuel H. Zent, Jr

Mother: Charlotte Sherer

Spouse: William J. Zuck