MRS. C. F. WILLIAMS DIES OF OPERATION

Funeral services for Mrs. Edna Hutchinson Williams, aged 28, wife of Clarence F. Williams, were held Sunday afternoon from the United Brethren church. Dr. S. Edwin Rupp officiating. A center section of the church was reserved for local business men.

Mrs. Williams died Friday evening at Grant hospital where she was taken Monday. An operation was performed as an effort to save her life but peritonitis had gained such a fast hold that medical aid and surgery could give little relief. Her last illness and death, coming so suddenly, were a distinct shock to the community and her many friends in Westerville. Mrs. Williams had lived in Westerville for the past five years. She was a member of the local United Brethren church.

Surviving her besides her husband, are two children Margaret Gayle and James Hutchinson, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hutchinson and a brother Clarence, all of West Unity; a sister, Mrs. H. N. Lehman of Canfield.

Burial was made in the Memorial Mausoleum in Otterbein cemetery by Earl F. Keyes.
