

ROBERT N. WIETHORN

Crypt 35, Tier 5

Service held for local oil distributor

Funeral service was held yesterday for Robert Wiethorn, 58, of 6162 Freeman rd, who died of a heart attack Saturday at his home.

Wiethorn, a long time area resident, owned his own fleet of fuel oil trucks and was a local fuel oil distributor.

He is survived by his wife, Jimmie; son, Robert Jr., of Dayton; daughter, Billie Sue Frasher, Columbus; and two grandchildren.

He was a Union 76 Oil Jobber, member of the Westerville Masonic bodies, the Anchor Club and Westerville Church of Christ.

Rev. Kenneth Mulpas and Rev. Harold Scott officiated the service at the Church of Christ, with entombment at Otterbein Mausoleum by the Hill Funeral Home.

Public Opinion - May 11, 1972

Born: October 10, 1913
Hamilton Co, OH

Died: May 6, 1972
Delaware Co, OH

Father: Fred H. Wiethorn

Mother: Edith C. Sell

Spouse: Unknown
Miss James L. Stamper