

OSCAR O. KOEPPPEL
Mausoleum, Crypt 34, Tier 3

GPS Coordinates: 82° 56' 10.056" W 40° 7' 13.581" N

MAJOR OSCAR O. KOEPPPEL

Funeral services for Major Oscar O. Koepfel were held at the Ramsey-Mohr chapel Thursday afternoon with Dale Main, first reader of the First Church of Christ Scientist, in charge. Mr. Main read the hymns, "Oh Dreamer Leave Thy Dream" and "Mother's Evening Prayer" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Representatives of two veteran's organizations, Raymond B. Austin post 115, American Legion, and Avery L. Vertner number 29, Spanish War veterans, were present and assisted with flowers. James A. Samson, David R. Smith, Edward Bush, Harold C. Smith, George Dix, and Carl Smith acted as pallbearers.

Entombment was in Otterbein mausoleum, Westerville.

Delaware Gazette - November, 1946

Born: July 26, 1875
Van Wert Co, OH

Died: November 18, 1946
Delaware Co, OH

Father: Gabriel H. Koepfel

Mother: Catherine Donard

Spouse: Mattie Patterson
Margaret M. Smith

Service: Spanish-American War
- 4th Reg OVI
World War I
- 166th Infantry, 42nd Division

*Received the Distinguished Service Cross for extreme heroism under fire during WWI.
The award is the second highest honor in the U.S.*